

SNH Vélo Club in pole position at the 15th edition of the Cameroon International Cycling Tour

Clovis Kamzong proudly dressed in the yellow jersey at the end of the 1st lap

Clovis Kamzong Abossolo, captain of SNH Vélo Club, won the first lap of the 2018 Cameroon International Cycling Tour, which was run between Pouma and Kribi.

It took him 3h 50 min 04 s to cover the 154.4 km distance.

He ascribes his victory to a good preparation and an in-depth knowledge of the circuit pitfalls.

This is a good start which permits the cyclists of SNH Vélo Club to serenely kick off the competition, which ends on 3rd June.

Six cyclists of SNH Vélo club are taking part in the race